To: Historic Preservation Commission
From: Thomas Smith, Planner
Subject: Chapter 18 Historic Preservation Ordinance Updates
Date: March 13, 2014

Background and Recommendations:
Over the past several months, the Historic Preservation Commission (HPC) has discussed and recommended three updates to the City’s Chapter 18 Historic Preservation ordinance. The proposed updates are to ensure that owners of potentially historic buildings aren’t circumventing the intended review process for buildings fifty years old or older, and that adequate time is provided to properly notify the Commission and the public of potential demolitions. One of these items, a 15 business day review period extension, was approved by City Council on April 8, 2014. The next item to move forward in the Council review and approval process is as follows:

Review of Partial Demolitions for Buildings 50 Years Old or Older:
In the past year, a potentially-historic home near one of the City’s local historic districts was deconstructed down to the foundation and chimney and then rebuilt with all new materials. Had the contractor given a full accounting of the work to be performed on the structure, it technically would not have been considered a demolition based on the City’s current definition. The City’s existing definition of a demolition is the complete removal of a structure and its foundation, and the clearing of the site. One possible definition of a partial demolition that could be added to Chapter 18 is as follows:

Partial Demolition (for structures determined to be fifty (50) years old or older):
1. Removal of more than twenty-five (25) percent of an exterior wall(s) facing a public street(s) or fifty (50) percent of all exterior walls; or
2. Enclosure or alteration of more than fifty (50) percent of the exterior walls so that they no longer function as exterior walls;
3. Removal and reconstruction of a roof to a different pitch; or
4. A proposed alteration, which in combination with other alterations of the building authorized within the preceding five (5) years will represent a change defined in subsections (1), (2), or (3).

Staff recommends that the partial demolition review apply only to buildings located within existing or potential local or National Register historic districts.

Timeline and Next Steps:
If recommended by the Historic Preservation Commission to proceed to City Council, the next steps for this Chapter 18 ordinance update are as follows:
- June 18, 2014 – Development Committee review
- July 8, 2014 – City Council motion setting a public hearing
- July 22, 2014 – City Council public hearing and first reading
- August 12, 2014 – Combined City Council second and third readings
