This figure details minimum required clearances between structure and water service lines. Adjust location of water services as directed by the Engineer to maintain the clearances shown.

1. If less than 48 inches, install 24 inch by 4 inch thick rigid foam board insulation along structure.