Patron Responsibilities and Conduct Policy

of the

Sam T. Wilson Public Library

The Sam T. Wilson Public Library encourages people of all ages to visit the Library. Those using the Library and its resources have the right to expect a safe, comfortable environment that supports appropriate library services. It is a patron’s responsibility to maintain necessary and proper standards of behavior in order to protect his/her individual rights and the rights and privileges of other patrons.

If a patron creates a public nuisance, that patron may be restricted from the Library and from the use of the Library’s facilities. Repeated misbehavior, or refusal to leave the Library when asked, can result in revoked library privileges. Those who are unwilling to leave or do not leave within a reasonable amount of time, after being instructed to do so by the staff, will be reported to the appropriate authority.

Patrons shall not interfere with the ability of others to use the Library or interfere with Library employee’s performance of their duties. Behavior which demands constant attention of the staff and/or disrupts service to others will not be permitted.

Young Children

The Sam T. Wilson Public Library encourages visits by young children and it is our desire to make this important visit both memorable and enjoyable for the child. Service to children is an important part of the Library’s mission. The Library is free and open to unaccompanied children who are independent enough to use the resources for recreation, information and education. If the child is not able to leave the Library without an adult, he/she should not be in the Library without an adult.

Therefore, it is Library policy that all children under the age of twelve must be accompanied by a parent or designated responsible person while in the Library. Also, if the young child is attending a program, we require the parent/responsible person to remain in the Library throughout the program.

Parents should be aware that the Library is a public building open to all individuals. It is not the Library’s staff’s function or purpose to provide supervision or to care for children while the parent or the designated responsible person are outside the Library. Staff will not monitor children leaving the Library.

At all times, parents/responsible persons are accountable for the conduct and safety of their children on Library premises. Parents/responsible persons must provide appropriate supervision based on the ages, the abilities and the levels of responsibility of their children.

Parents/responsible persons are expected to be aware of the opening and closing times of the Library, bearing in mind that these can and do change. Power failures or other emergencies can occur and require unexpected closing of the building. Children left alone in the Library, or on Library grounds, could be vulnerable. Every effort will be made to contact the parent/responsible person prior to closing.

If the child is left at the Library after closing time, the police will be called after 30 minutes. Police will arrive and pick the child / children up at the library. The child / children will be considered abandoned. Police will try and contact he child / children’s family, but if there is no response, a report will be written and the child will be transported to Juvenile court in Memphis, TN. If the Library closes as the result of an emergency, the police will be called as soon as possible. Staff can require that unattended children go with them during emergency procedures, such as seeking shelter from severe weather or evacuation of the building. Under no other circumstances will a staff member take a child out of the building or transport children to another location.

Disruptive Children

Children of all ages are encouraged to use the Library for homework, recreational reading, and program attendance. The Library staff realizes that the Library will be noisier at busy times and that children by nature can cause more commotion. However, children (whether with parents/responsible persons or not) who are being continually disruptive will be given a warning that he/she must settle down or be asked to leave the Library. If after a second warning the child continues to be disruptive, he/she will be asked to leave the Library. If the child needs to contact the parent, they may do so and then wait with a staff person until the parent arrives.

Adopted 7/05/2005
Children of all ages are required to respect Library property and to act in a manner appropriate to the use and function of the Library. Children who are not using the Library appropriately or who require excessive staff attention or supervision will be asked to leave the Library and, if necessary, the police will be contacted.

The Library Director or designee may deny access to the Library to any person who violates these rules and regulations. If necessary, police will be contacted to assist Library staff in enforcing these rules.
