Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging Resources
Compiled by the Cedar Rapids Civil Rights Commission

Online Resources

- Digital Portal
  If you are looking for resources to help start the conversation about race with your family or community group, the National Museum of African American History and Culture has created this digital portal with links to videos, articles, and exercises that can help you understand the context of the issues we are seeing in current events.

- Justice in June
  This resource was compiled by Autumn Gupta with Bryanna Wallace’s oversight for the purpose of providing a starting place for individuals trying to become better allies.

- 21-Day Racial Equity Habit Building Challenge
  For 21 days, do one action to further your understanding of power, privilege, supremacy, oppression, and equity. This plan includes suggestions for readings, podcasts, videos, observations, and ways to form and deepen community connections. Created by America & Moore, LLC

- Anti-Racism Resources
  This document is intended to serve as a resource to deepen our anti-racism work.

- Implicit Association Test by Harvard
  The Implicit Association test measures attitudes and beliefs that people may be unwilling or unable to report.

- Ally Resource Guide
  This guide contains call-to-actions and resources: registering to vote, ways to donate (various organizations/funds), petitions to sign, anti-racism resources to listen to, watch, and/or read, resources for teaching children about anti-racism, other anti-racism resource guides.
