To All Denville Youth Sports Coaches and League Administrators:

The Township of Denville requires all Volunteer Youth Sport Coaches and League Administrators to submit a fingerprint background check once every 3 years. Coaches/Administrators are required to use IdentoGo. IdentoGo is located at 601 Jefferson Rd. in Parsippany, NJ.

Attached is a copy of the application each volunteer must read and complete. Registration instructions are located half way down the application. The identification numbers printed on this form will allow your information to be sent to the Denville Recreation Department. Without the report coming to the Recreation Department you will not be allowed to participate.

There is a $24.05 charge for the fingerprint scan. You will be reimbursed for that fee. To be reimbursed that fee you will need to send copies of the application and a copy of your receipt to:

Denville Recreation
1 St. Mary’s Place
Denville, NJ 07834

The Denville Recreation Department also requires that all Volunteer Coaches & Administrators take the Rutgers Coaches Safety Class or have an up to date NYSCA Card. The Rutgers class is a non-sports specific class and only needs to be taken once at the present time. To find out when the next available Rutgers Safety class is being held, please ask your League Administrator or call the Denville Recreation Office.

Coaches/Administrators are also required to take the free online concussion training course on the CDC website. After completing this online course, print out your certification and send a copy to the Recreation Department at the address listed above. Please follow the address link below to take this online course.

If you have any questions regarding the background check or the Rutgers Safety Class, please contact the Denville Recreation Department at 973-625-8300 ext. 238.

Thank you
