We Want Your Feedback!
Charter City Survey

Should the City further explore a Home Rule Charter? Would you be interested in attending informational meetings about a Home Rule Charter? The City wants your feedback!

A charter city is a city that possesses a unique set of laws that forms the legal foundation of its local government. Through adoption of a Home Rule Charter, the citizens of a city have the opportunity to define the powers and functions of elected officials as well as the organization and procedures of local government. The City of Wentzville is currently a fourth-class city, which exists and is significantly controlled by Missouri statutes. As a fourth-class city, Wentzville can only engage in activities expressly permitted under the state statutes.

A presentation about Home Rule Charter was given during a Town Hall meeting in January. View the PowerPoint presentation at bit.ly/charterpowerpoint, or watch a video of the presentation at bit.ly/chartertownhall. Then, we invite you to take a quick two-question survey online at www.surveymonkey.com/r/chartercity. A hard copy was also included in the May/June issue of The Vision, or you can email your responses to CharterSurvey@wentzvillemo.org.
